

Diabetes Care

PARTNERS

The Premier Diabetes Solutions Organization

2015

In-center and Telehealth Diabetes Patient Outcomes Data

2015 In-Center

Diabetes Program Outcomes

Decreased A1c an Average of

1.96

for patients with
diabetes who had
initial A1c greater
than 8.0

2015 In-Center

Diabetes Program Outcomes

Patients in group >8.0

Started with an average A1c

9.86

Decreased
A1c
By

1.96

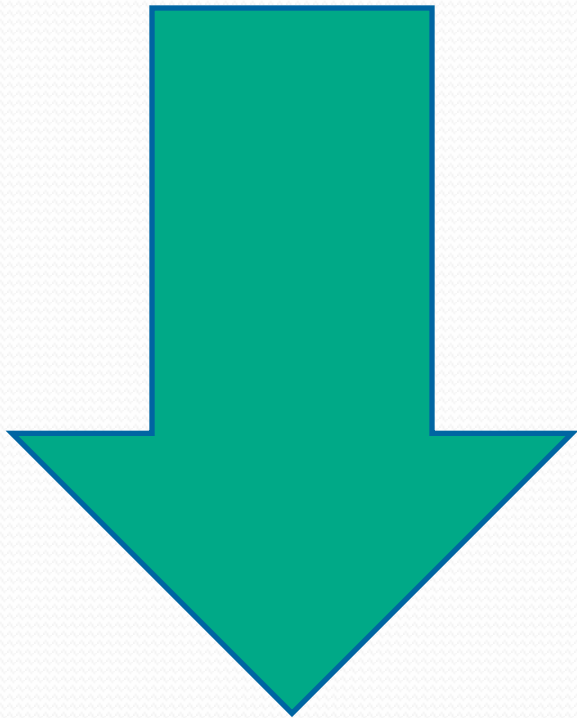

3 month post
Program with an average A1c

7.90

2015 In-Center

Diabetes Program Outcomes

Decreased A1c
an Average of

0.97

for All population of
patients

2015 In-Center

Diabetes Program Outcomes

All Patients

Started with an average A1c

8.07

Decreased
A1c
By

0.97

3 month post
Program with an average A1c

7.10

Telehealth

Diabetes Program Outcomes

2015 Telehealth

Diabetes Program Outcomes

Decreased A1c an Average of

2.82

for patients with
diabetes who had
initial A1c greater
than 8.0

2015 Telehealth

Diabetes Program Outcomes

Patients in group >8.0

Started with an average A1c

11.06

Decreased
A1c
By

2.82

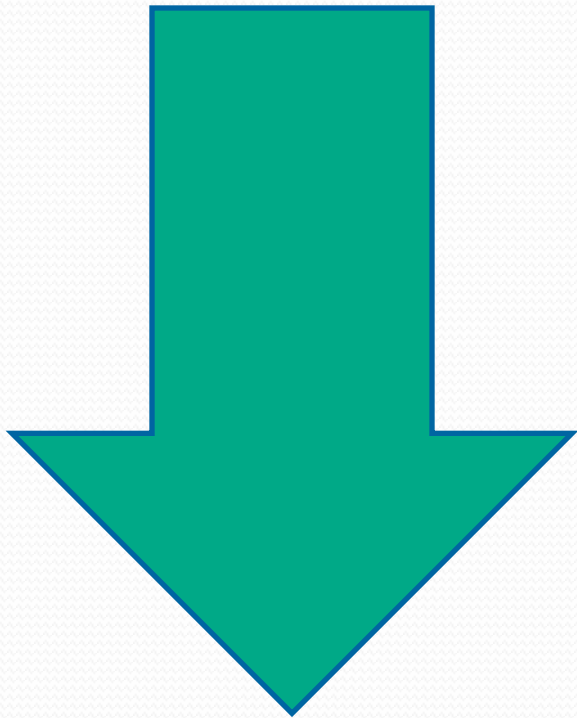

3 month post
Program with an average A1c

8.24

2015 Telehealth

Diabetes Program Outcomes

Decreased A1c
an Average of

1.31

for All
population of
patients

2015 Telehealth

Diabetes Program Outcomes

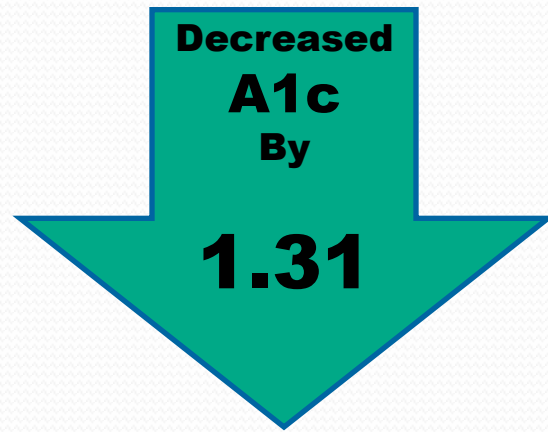

All Patients

Started with an average A1c

8.83

Decreased
A1c
By

1.31

3 month post Program with an average A1c

7.52

FINANCIAL IMPACT FOR DECREASE IN A1C

3

Average Hospitalization for a person with diabetes costs $10,937

2. Smith K, Levine B, Clement S, et al. Impact of MyCareTeam for poorly controlled diabetes mellitus. Diabetes Technology & Therapeutics. 2004;6(6) 828-35.

2. Hoffman D. an urgent reality: The need to prevent and control chronic disease, observations from the field. National Association of Chronic Disease Directors. 2007; 1-8

3. Taressa Frazee, Ph.D., H. Joanna Jiang, Ph.D., and Jacqueline Burgess, M.B.A. Hospital Stays for Patients with Diabetes, 2008